The Daily Courant.

Wednesday, January 2. 1706.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated January 5.

Rome, December 12.

THE Abbot Scarlati is arriv'd here with a Commission from the Elector of Bavaria, and has had Audience of the Pope. They write from Naples, that a Courier from Spain had brought thither the News of the Surrender of Barcelona; and that several Families there have put themselves in Mourning, for the Death of several Officers and Cadets who went over to Catalonia with the Duke de Popoli. These Letters add, that some Privateers, carrying the Colours of Savoy, had taken a Felucca of Naples that was bound for Leghorne, laden with Merchandize, and having on board in Money 3000 Pistoles.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated January 5.

Vienna, December 23. On Sunday last, Te Deum was sung in our Cathedral Church of St. Stephen, in Thanksgiving for the taking of the City of Barcelona, and of the Reduction of all Catalonia, Roses excepted, to the Obedience of King Charles III. The Emperor, accompanied by the Imperial Family, the Courts of Justice, the Nobility, and several Foreign Ministers, were present at this Solemnity. The next Day, the Marquis del Vasto, Ambassador of Spain, caus'd Te Deum to be sung on the same Occasion in the Church belonging to the Spanish Nation, and at Night gave a magnificent Entertainment in his Palace to the Lords and Ladies of the Court, and other Persons of Quality. Solemn publick Rejoycings are in a few Days to be made here, for the Defeat of the Army of the Hungarian Malecontents in Transilvania. M. Charles Verville a French Collonel, who was taken Prisoner a Year ago in the Battle of Tirnau, is sent to Hungary to be exchang'd for Collonel Salzer, who is in the Hands of the Malecontents.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated January 5.

Francfort, Dec. 30. We have Advice, that the Dutchess Dowager of Saxe-Gotha, who was of the House of Baden, died at Altenbourg the 20th of this Month. Prince Lewis of Baden continues at his Seat at Rastad. All is quiet on the Upper Rhine, the Troops on both Sides lying still in their Winter-Quarters. Some Passengers that are come from Alsace report, that of late a great many Bavarian Officers have pass'd through Strasbourg, in their Way from the Netherlands to Bavaria, whither they are sent to foment the Insurrection in that Electorate. In the mean time 'tis talk'd some more of the Troops the Allies have on the Upper Rhine will be detach'd to Bavaria; and that if need be the Number of the Forces design'd to act against the Bavarian Rebels, will be augmented to 30000 Men. 'Tis also said, that the King of Prussia's Troops that are coming up from the Country of Cleves, are to supply the Room of those Regiments that are to be detach'd from the Upper Rhine to Bavaria.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated January 5.

Basil, December 27. Baron Greuth, the Imperial Ambassador's Subdelegate, has written a Letter to the Protestant Swiss Cantons, in which he desires them to call a Diet to meet at Baden speedily, to take into Consideration the Resolution the Roman Catholick Cantons seem to have taken to renew their ancient Alliance with the State of Milan in Favour of the Duke of Anjou.

From the Amst. Cour. and Leid. Gaz. dated Jan. 5.

Francfort, December 31. The Roman Catholick Cantons have renew'd their ancient Capitulation with the States of Milan, in Favour of the Duke of Anjou. 'Tis advis'd from Rastad, that they had News the Marshal de Villars is return'd from Paris to Strasburg, and that the Troops he had sent from Alsace towards Spain are countermanded; but this News meets with no Credit here, because we have other Advices which say that within a Week a 2d Detachment was sent from Alsace towards Spain. A few Days ago, the Garrison of Fort Louis turn'd some of the Inhabitants out, because Provisions begin to be very scarce with them; but the Imperial Forces that keep that Place closely block'd up, forc'd them in agen. Letters from Geneva of the 25th Instant say they had a Report there of a great Action between the Armies of the Imperialists and the French in Lombardy, in which the latter were worsted with the Loss of 8000 Men, the Imperialists losing but 4000. But these Letters from Geneva are not at all credited, because they say that Action happen'd on the 13th of this Month; whereas we have Letters from the Imperial Camp dated the 17th which say nothing of the Matter.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated January 5.

Amsterdam, Jan. 5. Letters from Saxony of the 30th of last Month advise, that the Czar of Muscovy before his Departure from Grodno for Moscow, receiv'd by an Express from his Ambassador at the Ottoman Porte, the Ratification of the Treaty for setling the Frontiers of the 2 Empires. 'Tis said that by that Treaty, the famous Town of Asoph is yielded up to the Muscovites, with all its dependant Territory. M. Smigielski continues to render great Services to King Augustus, by frequently beating up the Quarters of the Swedes: The last Advices say, he was on the March with a Detachment of 2 or 3000 Horse to dislodge the Swedes from Sandomir.

Letters from Ratisbon advise, that upon the Complaints made on the part of the Queen of England and of the States General, of the Desertion of many Soldiers of the Troops of divers Princes of Germany that are in their Pay, the Diet have pass'd a Resolution that if any such Soldiers desert hereafter, they shall if retaken be punish'd with Death.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated January 5.

Letters from Basil of the 27th of December advise, that the Jealousies and Discontents between the Protestant and Roman Catholick Grisons, which had for some Time lain dormant, are agen reviv'd, upon Occasion of the latter's having caus'd several Capuchins and Mendicant Friars to come into the Country, with Design to let them settle there contrary to the Laws and Constitutions of the Republick. The Protestant Grisons oppose this Innovation very zealously. And the Roman Catholicks being as warm on their side, 'tis to be apprehended this Dispute will have very mischievous Consequences.

'Tis

'Tis advis'd from Berlin the 30th of last Month, that the King of Prussia was extremely afflicted at the News he had receiv'd by an Express of the Death of his Daughter the Hereditary Princess of Hesse-Cassel: That the whole Court was going into deep Mourning: And that his Prussian Majesty had resolv'd to augment his Troops to 40000 Men against the next Campaign.

Letters from Ghent of the 30th Ult, say they had had a violent Storm of Wind there which had blown down 2 Steeples, damag'd a great Number of Houses of that Town, and kill'd or maimed several Persons. And Letters of the same Date from Axel, tell us that Town and the Country adjacent had receiv'd very great Damage by the same Storm.

From the Paris Letter, dated January 1.

Paris, January 1. We have a Confirmation that a Treaty between the King of Spain and the 13 Swiss Cantons, is concluded and sign'd; by which they oblige themselves to furnish his Catholick Majesty with 10000 Men for the Defence of the Milaneze; nay 5000 more if Occasion require. Besides this General Treaty, the Catholick Cantons have renew'd a particular Treaty with his Catholick Majesty.

London, January 2.

A Gentleman who came from the Hague on Thursday last, reports, that M. Swartzau, an eminent Jew, had communicated to the States, Letters he had receiv'd that Day from Persons he could depend on, which advis'd that the Kingdom of Valencia has wholly revolted to King Charles III, and particularly that the City of Valencia is actually in the Possession of the Troops of the Allies; that the Arragonians have follow'd the Example of those of Valencia; and have taken such Measures, that the Duke of Anjou's Troops will not be able to penetrate through that Kingdom to Catalonia, for want of Forrage and Provisions for their necessary Subsistance.

He says, certain Advice was likewise come to the Hague, that the Duke of Savoy is actually on the March with a Body of Troops; but whether to attempt the Relief of Nice, or on some other Enterprize, is uncertain.
